

Petitioner Has Standing - continued

32. The Petitioner has standing because the Town, in enacting a law that conflicts with New York State GBL 396 X, has failed to perform a duty enjoined to it by law.
33. The Petitioner has standing because the Town, in passing a law that violates the Constitutional right of its citizens to have equal protection under the law, has failed to perform a duty enjoined to it by law.
34. Petitioner has no other remedy at law.